FORMER EXPERIAN EMPLOYEE PLEADS GUILTY

(Sherman, Texas) A 30-year-old Dallas man pleaded guilty today to conspiracy to commit computer fraud in the Eastern District of Texas. Jameel Casey appeared before United States District Judge Richard A. Schell and was released on restrictive conditions while awaiting sentencing.

According to information presented in court, Casey, a former Experian Information Systems, Inc. employee, conspired with other individuals to inflate consumer credit reports in exchange for payment.

Casey faces up to 5 years in prison and fines of up to $250,000. A sentencing date has not been set.

Special agents from the United States Secret Service are investigating this case. Assistant U.S. Attorney Shamoil T. Shipchandler is prosecuting the case.
